

“Keeping the Vigil for the last patrol.”

In memory of those who never returned...

Watch Fire

Dating back to the Revolutionary war, when they used to signal the cease fire ending the war, have had great significance. Watchfires are now used symbolically to guide home “The Lost Patrol” that has not yet returned from their last mission. Join us along the Hudson River, to guide home our warriors from all wars!

★ Memorial Day Weekend ★

Sunday, May 29, 2016

The Lighting of the Flame Will Be at Dusk!

Montrose Campus River Front